

The Maryland Commission for Women is deeply saddened by the death of Senator Dianne Feinstein, a true leader in the ongoing work towards equality. Her legacy is one of unwavering commitment to the issues facing women today, and her example is a beacon to the women leaders of tomorrow.